

THE LONG ISLAND ESTATE OF J. P. MORGAN at Matinecock Point, as viewed from the air. This magnificent summer home of New York's financial magnate, with its private bathing beach and dock, stables, tennis courts, hothouses and gardens, driveways, lawns, etc., covers practically all of East Island, with the Sound on one side and East Dosoris Pond on the other. It is just outside of Glen Cove and adjoins the great Pratt, Brokaw, Baker and Davidson estates.

Photo by Sigmund Krustane

WINNER OF U. S. OPEN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP—big Ted Ray, veteran English professional, mightiest slugger and greatest putter in the game, and his ever-present pipe. The ponderous Britisher won at Toledo last week by one stroke (295) after one of the most dramatic finishes ever seen. Vardon (England), Deigol (Chicago), Burke (St. Paul), and Hutchison (Chicago) all tied for second with 296.

International

POPULAR KING BORIS OF BULGARIA—a new photograph of the twenty-six-year-old monarch, who is noted for his democracy, simplicity in taste and affability. The good-looking ruler, who speaks excellent English, is an expert in zoology and botany, a great lover of animals, having his own private zoo, and rides an engineering hobby. He hopes to soon visit the United States.

Underwood

ACROSS THE ATLANTIC IN A THIRTY-FIVE-FOOT SAIL BOAT. The Typhoon, a fifteen-ton ketch-rigger, in which three adventurous Americans, F. W. Baldwin, of Toronto; W. W. Nutting, of New York, and J. Bassett, of Washington, crossed from Nova Scotia to England in 22 days. The Typhoon was built to demonstrate that a small boat properly designed could prove just as seaworthy as a big ship.

Underwood

LOOPS THE LOOP 87 TIMES FOR NEW AVIATION RECORD. Twenty-year-old Laura Bromwell, of Cincinnati, a student of the Curtiss Flying School, at Garden City, who smashed the world's record for looping the loop in an airplane by women by about sixty loops last Sunday. "Just a minute, please," she cried, waving aside a group of photographers, as she completed her amazing stunt. "I've got to powder my nose."

Underwood

OUR NEW NAVAL ATTACHE AT LONDON, Rear Admiral Albert P. Niblack, who has been relieved of his duties as director of naval intelligence and ordered to England. During the war Admiral Niblack was in command of America's naval forces in the Adriatic Sea.

Underwood